'Just FYI—this is a slightly different telephone number than the one you and I were trying a few months ago. Hopefully, we'll have more success with this one.

Great--got it! Thank you! The Biancos are a little hard to get ahold of, but I have had some luck with this number: 9706278837 and also their e-mail (biancojk@yahoo.com).

Hello, Alita. I just sent you a message and forgot to change the subject line to something more descriptive than our printer number! It includes the Corps' inspection report as an attachment. I just wanted to draw your attention to the email so you don't think it is spam.
